

The Episcopal Diocese of Eastern Oregon

Diocesan Prayer Calendar - 2012

Beloved Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Once again I have had the opportunity to remember how important prayer support is in our lives. As we have travelled through the last two plus weeks of our family crises, we have been upheld by prayer and perhaps even more by the awareness of prayer surrounding us.

It is my hope and dream that one of the key elements of our life together in the Episcopal Diocese of Eastern Oregon is that we will be a people of prayer: a praying people and a people ready and willing to ask for prayer. Prayer is our constant reminder that we are a people of faith, depending on God's Grace - mediated especially through the children of God.

If we pray always for one another, I am convinced that we will find the way forward to support and uphold one another in whatever shape or form the diocese takes in the future. As we become more and more aware of the needs and of the thanksgivings of our several congregations, we will come to know how it is that we are called to be together and how God might be calling us to be in ministry together, a light to the world and to Eastern Oregon.

As I said last year this is what being a diocese is all about: to be bound together in love, Grace and prayer, sharing our variety of gifts for the building up of the Body of Christ, knowing that as we lay down our lives for our friends, for one another, that we will know the resurrection and new life that has been prepared for us from the beginning of the world, that we will know eternal life.

So let us continue to pray for one another and to ask one another to pray for us, sharing our prayer concerns so that others can be more generous and focused in our prayer, binding themselves to us and us to them.

And please continue to pray for the broader Church: for Katharine, our Presiding Bishop, for the Anglican Communion, (<http://www.anglicancommunion.org/acp/>) and for our neighbors and partners in ministry.

Finally, I ask that you continue to pray for me that I may serve you as God intends, for the benefit of Eastern Oregon and all God's Holy Church.

Fr. Fredi
